Resurrection Reality

by Pastor Joel Wight Hoogheem

On September 7, 2005, the technology world was abuzz when Apple did the unthinkable: they discontinued their most popular and best-selling product at that time, the iPod Mini. It seemed to make no sense for a highly successful and highly profitable product to be killed off just like that. It seemed like a foolish act to many, who were vocal in their questioning of this decision. Why would Apple take such a risk?

Well, it turned out that Apple took that risk because they had something even better in store: the iPod Nano. Despite the popularity of the iPod Mini, Apple saw that the underlying technology – a hard disk drive with moving parts – was giving way to a new and better technology, the solid state drive. This new technology allowed the iPod Nano to have a longer life and be even more portable and compact – two of the main selling points of the whole product line.

As things unfolded, this risky decision turned out to be a masterstroke for Apple. This decision laid the groundwork both for establishing this new iPod as a successful product and for developing part of the technology that is seen currently in the ubiquitous iPhone. Today, Apple is the most valuable company in the history of the world, thanks in large part to this willingness to take risks and try new things – not all of which are successful, either!

The story of the iPod Mini makes me think of resurrection because there is one thing that is absolutely required for resurrection to take place. Put plainly, something has to die.

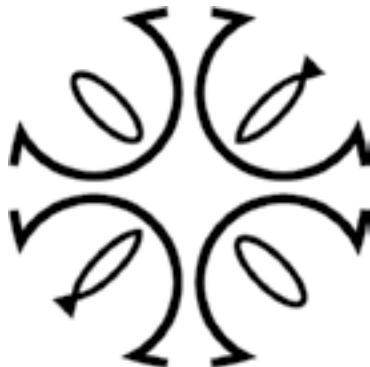

That's what we celebrate so fervently and vociferously at Easter: that Jesus died, truly and absolutely, and God raised him back to life. This was no resuscitation, but resurrection. New life coming out of death, with God defeating death through the love of Christ on the cross.

As people who place our trust in this resurrection reality, then, the difficult but necessary question we all face is this: what might need to die in our lives for us to experience resurrection?

In Romans 6:3-4, Paul writes, "Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life." So, yes, the sin and brokenness we experience in our daily lives is put to death by our baptismal relationship with Jesus Christ. The challenge, however, is for us to discern, as Apple did with the iPod Mini when something good in our lives may need to be put to death in order for newness of life and resurrection reality to be experienced.

That’s something much harder to discern, but I am convinced that it still needs to happen. Much like Jesus uses the imagery of pruning a tree in order to promote growth, our lives – both as individuals and as a faith community – need that sort of pruning in order to grow and thrive as God intends.

Yes, this is a difficult idea to pursue, that something needs to die in order for resurrection to take place. Yet because of the resurrection of Jesus Christ we can trust that God continues to renew and resurrect us in our lives here and now. Our trust in this resurrection reality will not disappoint us, for if Jesus can overcome death and the grave we know that God has something even better in store for us!

In Christ,

Pastor Joel

Update on the Youth Plant Sale

The youth committee has decided that we will not be proceeding with the youth plant sale scheduled for May of this year. We are grateful for Waldoch's willingness to provide plants for us for many years and for the many dedicated hands that have made this fundraiser a success. We are extremely appreciative of the St. Philip's community's generosity of our youth and investment in their experience at Green Lake Bible Camp this summer! God has provided abundantly through each one of you and we are so grateful for the monetary and prayerful support! If you have any questions regarding this change, please feel free to contact Sara or any members of the Youth Committee. Thank you!

Thanks for "Filling the Bowl"

You responded to the opportunity to "Fill the Bowl" and thus combat world hunger through the Global Mission Festival special offering in January. Your contributions enabled St Philip's to send $3,570.93 to ELCA World Hunger. From health clinics to micro-loans, water wells to animal husbandry, community meals to advocacy, your gifts to ELCA World Hunger make it possible for the ELCA to respond, supporting sustainable solutions that get at the root causes of hunger and poverty. Thank you for your response of love that helps meet the needs of 1.2 billion people who live in extreme poverty, living on less than $1.25 per day.

In addition to this special offering, Sunday School children learned about God's Global Barnyard and gave their offering of piggy banks. Youth of the congregation also had several events relating to hunger in our world, some of these in cooperation with other churches in the area.

Again, thanks on behalf of the many who will benefit from your contribution.

"Love is a spice for living"

Thanks to all those who added some spice to another persons life by delivering Meals on Wheels the week of April 6-10. They were Barb and Lary Johnson, Don and Joyce Olson, Meredith and Larry Hille, Roger Musolf and Ellen Raeker, Earl Hatten, Ann Westby, Bobbi and Butch Tuey, Dawn and Richard Young, Monica Anderson, Thelma and Myron Nash. We deliver meals next the week of June 8-12 at 11:30am.

Letter from the President
Ron Ackerman, Congregation President

The past month has been very interesting to watch the various shows on the Bible. There were a number on cable, "Killing Jesus", "Buried in the Bible" (a documentary tying archeological findings to biblical history), and "The 10 Commandments", to name a few.

A new series started Sunday April 5th, "AD - The Bible Continues", starts with the Crucifixion of Jesus and what happens following that. This is a 12 part series on NBC and is a sequel to "The Bible" series of 2013. "The Bible" was a story of God's creation of the Earth and the landmark events leading up to the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ. I would highly recommend watching "AD - The Bible Continues". If you have cable or Direct TV, you can record episodes. They are Sunday evenings. I have always enjoyed history and events that have happened. With the Bible, it is sometimes difficult to pinpoint exactly when or where the story happened. I made a personal goal to read the entire Bible this year. I started at the New Testament, because that is where we are in the 2015 calendar. With the Lenten Season, it seemed more relevant. In the King James version, there are 39 books in the Old Testament and 27 in the New Testament. An interesting fact about the Bible is that it is the most popular book in the world, over 6 billion copies have been printed in over 1300 languages. It was written by 40 different authors over a 1500 year time frame. It was written in 3 different languages over 3 different continents. In addition to sharing these commonalities, these 66 books contain no historical errors or contradictions. God's word truly is an amazing collection of writings!

To shift gears a little, I am sure that you have noticed the many improvements regarding St. Philips. The new sound system will be in place by the time that you get "The April Friend". It will make a dramatic improvement in hearing in the sanctuary. The floors have all be resurfaced and look great. The roof is fixed, that is critical with all the Spring time weather. All of these changes have been made possible by your generous donations to the Build For the Future campaign. The Property and Grounds committee is doing a great job of prioritizing the long list of improvements and maintenance needs. Look around and see the new look of St. Philips.

In closing out, I have this question for you "If April Showers bring May flowers, What do May flowers bring? The answer is Pilgrims. Think Spring!

Greetings from Sara

Sara Quarberg

Director of Youth & Young Adult Ministries

“The beauty of the church, to me, is that it is a place of belonging.”

~ Sara Quarberg

Happy May! As May is upon us, we look towards the end of another school year. I'm not sure how this year has slipped by so quickly! As I quickly am approaching my one year mark as a part of this community, I want to thank you for all that this community has taught me. What I have seen as being a part of St. Philip's for the last year is this. God is indeed very present in this place through the leadership of staff, the knowledge and guidance of our Pastors, the exuberance of the children and young people to learn about God, the rich and gifted musicality of our worship leaders, the hospitality of those serving meals and reaching outside the doors of St. Philip's, the hard work from the hands of those who use their gifts in repairing the building and the combined desire to be a part of something more than ourselves from this entire community. This church is first and foremost God's church and God entrusts it to us to care for, to belong to, to learn from, to grow, to nurture and to go forth from.

The beauty of the church, to me, is that it is a place of belonging. This belonging is not because it's a 'social club' or something of the like, but this belonging is something deeper and more profound than that. This belonging is something that cannot be found anywhere else. For me, the church has always been a place where I'm reminded who I am; a beloved child of God. When I was younger, I didn't like school nor did I feel like I fit in there. I remember roaming the halls of the church thinking, "I just want to be here". Being at church brought a sense of belonging to me that no where else in my life offered besides my family. The church had become my family! This larger family continually believed in me when I didn't believe in myself. It was a community of others who shared my place when I felt less than worthy of others' love and even God's love. They held enough faith for me when I sometimes couldn't seem to find any. This community of believers constantly reminded me who I was. And, for that, I'm forever grateful. I'm grateful for parents who made it a priority to take me to church and to help me grow in faith just as they had promised on my baptismal day. I'm grateful for a God who meets me right where I am, comforts me and loves me. I'm grateful for a God who is already in the messiness of life. I'm grateful for a Savior who chose to give His own life so that I will never have to journey in this life alone and that my brokenness may be restored.

So, thank you, for being a part of this journey with each other and our young people. Thank you for stepping in through prayer, conversation and in support of the efforts of our young people. As I reflect on this past year, I see how our young people have answered God's call to serve, to love, to learn, to give and to be in relationship with one another and this community. I look forward with such anticipation to witness how God continues to call us into relationship with one another and as we discern together where the Holy Spirit is leading us as one body of Christ.

In Christ,
Sara
