June 2017

Come as you are to Worship, Wonder, and Work in Jesus' name!

Here comes Pentecost by Pastor Mollie Dvorak

Get your red party shoes on! Pentecost is coming this month and it is time to celebrate the work of the Holy Spirit! Pentecost is a word from the Greek meaning "fiftieth day." It is seven weeks from Easter, on the fiftieth day after Easter. While the feast is movable, changing dates as Easter changes each year, it is always on a Sunday, just as the first Christian Pentecost was.

Pentecost is the celebration of something we have never witnessed in quite the same way as the first Christians. They had the noise of the great wind (a spirit reference!) and the tongues of fire on the heads of the Apostles and the speaking in tongues of that first Pentecost to mark the event. I am unaware of noises of a great wind happening spontaneously or tongues of flame, although don't think I haven't thought about how we could make that work in church.

So where do we see the Holy Spirit at work?

As you wonder, try not to let the possible vague or intangable image of the Holy Spirit hold you back from seeing and hearing the Holy Spirit's presence. I encourage each of us to discern how the Holy Spirit has moved around, in, and through you. If you need a little reminder, think back to the words spoken at your baptism, "Child of God, you have been sealed by the Holy Spirit, and marked with the cross of Christ, forever!" We don't see the Spirit, but we see the Spirit being poured out with the water. My eyes only see the water, but my trust in the Word of God shows me the Spirit, as God performs what He promised and creates faith in those who are "born of water and the Spirit," John 3:5.

We will celebrate the day of Pentecost on June 4 (with red, the church's party color) but it doesn't end there. It is not a one-day celebration. Did you know Pentecost is our longest church season, that will take us all the way through summer and fall, until Advent? The season of Pentecost can seem long and daunting at times, but my hope is to view it a little differently this year. As we celebrate the day of Pentecost, may it launch us into a season of discovering how much the Spirit is at work in our world, our communities, our lives, and our own church home.

In Peace,

~Pastor Mollie

Everyone is welcome to worship at St. Philip's

Summer Ministry

Sara Quarberg, Director of Youth & Young Adult Ministries

Before we jump into summer ministry, I'd like to take a moment to celebrate all that God has done here at St. Philip's this year! This program year was filled with countless ways to learn about God, to grow and be challenged in faith, to be with friends, worship together as families, serve our neighbors through various service projects, to g et to know our adult leaders through small groups, and more! God has provided us with so many opportunities to grow, serve, worship, learn, and have fun together. Thanks be to God and to each one of you for your involvement!

This summer we have some truly amazing ministry opportunities happening! From June 25 - 30, we have 10 young people heading to Lake Wapogasset Lutheran Bible Camp in Amery, Wisconsin for a week-long experience of learning, worship, arts, music, sports, nature, food, fun, and more! Camp is such a formative time in a young person's life and I am so glad that we are able to provide this opportunity, along with the staff at Camp WAPO, for each of these youth! I look forward to spending part of the week at Camp with our youth, too. Please keep Addi, Allie, Caroline, Grace, Kaj, Kaitlyn, Liam, Maddie, Megan, and Mia in your prayers as their week at camp approaches! We look forward to hearing their stories when they return!

In July, our High School youth will be journeying to Chicago to engage in a week of service and learning Together in partnership with the staff of Serve Boldly, our High School youth and adult leaders will learn more about those facing hunger and poverty in the Chicago area and will have a chance to serve in whatever ways God calls us to surrounding those needs. Please keep Amber, Allison, Daniel, Eli, Grace, Katie, Lauren, and Lucas in your prayers as they prepare for and journey to Chicago from July 9 -14.

Thank you again for your support of our young people. Your prayers, words of encouragement, and monetary support are so much appreciated!

~Sara

The Visitation Pastor

Margie Guelker, Visitation Pastor

The lawyer asked Jesus: "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus answered him with the parable of the Good Samaritan.

Our neighbor is anyone who is in need, and we are called to care for them. Visitation ministry belongs to all of the people of God, not just to a designated Pastor. Along with doing actual visitation, it is my hope and desire to form a group of "Friendly Visitors" who will multiply visitation in this congregation.

These visitors will take Holy Communion to those they visit, share scripture, pray with them, and most importantly, listen to them.

There is a lot of "lonely" out there. There are people who can no longer make it to worship. There are people who are in care facilities or who live by themselves. Your visit would bring the love of Jesus to each of them. And I will tell you this one little secret, you also will be blessed!

"Who is my neighbor?" Let us, as a congregation find the answer to that question.

Blessings,

~Pastor Margie

Gratitude Connie Yerigan, Director of Children & Family Ministries

Gratitude. The quality of being thankful and the readiness to show appreciation for and to return kindness.

For me, offering a simple 'Thank you' sometimes just doesn't feel like enough in my heart. Since I have started working here, (seven months ago, wow!) so many people have supported me, helped me, and shown such amazing kindness, that when I thank them, I wish I could offer more. They smile, and kindly say, 'You're welcome', or 'No problem', but what they don't know is, that without them and their generosity, a lot of things wouldn't have been possible.

Without the generosity of our congregation donating items throughout the year, without our amazing volunteers, Sunday School lessons wouldn't have been taught, and the children of our congregation would not have had the chance to gather together and learn about Jesus through fun stories, neat games, cool crafts, and silly songs. They wouldn't have had the chance to stand in front of the congregation and spread the word that Christmas is more than just gifts and loot and stuff.

Without the kindness and generosity of many, many special people, we wouldn't be able to offer an amazing week of Bible stories, games, activities and fun at our Vacation Bible School the week of June 19 - 23. The children of our congregation, and our community, will gather together and learn that we are all created by God, and built for a purpose. There is still time to volunteer to help. If this is something that interests you, please let me know.

I will always hold volunteers close to my heart. I will probably always feel that I wish I could offer more than a simple 'Thank you', but I hope that these amazing people know how much they truly mean to me. I see God in each one of our volunteers here at St. Philip's. Thank you all!

'I always thank my God for you because of his grace given you in Christ Jesus.'
1 Corinthians 1:4

Blessings,

~Connie

Our 10th annual Festival of Tables will be on April 14, 2018. Please save the date and plan to attend this beautiful fundraiser. Thank you!

President's Column Mike Youngberg

At the Synod assembly in May, Pastor David Lose did a Bible study on Matthew 25 about "Doing it unto the least of these." I'm going to steal from Pastor Lose because what he said is worth stealing. You'll recall this is the story where Jesus says you didn't feed me, clothe me, or visit me in prison. The listeners then say that they never saw him hungry, naked, or in prison. Jesus responds "If you didn't do it to the least of these my brethren, you didn't do it to me."

Some who hear those words feel good about themselves. Some feel condemned. Like me, I suspect most people who hear these words feel mostly uncomfortable for not having done enough. Who among us has? Lose suggests that the story is not an indictment against those who have not done enough. Nor is it a pat on the back for those who have done some good work. Rather it is a command similar to that found in Matthew 26 when Jesus says "Do this in re-membrance of me". And to the one in Matthew 28 where he says "Make disciples of all nations and baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit." Neither of these implies any threat of a negative consequence. Just a command to do it. And so it is in Matthew 25 when Jesus says, "Do it unto the least of these."

Pastor Lose suggests that this passage is as close as Lutherans can get to a third Sacrament, to go along with Baptism and Communion. It contains all three elements necessary for a Sacrament. 1) It is commanded by Jesus. 2) It confers grace and blessing. 3) It involves an earthly element. You may be asking yourself what that earthly element might be. The answer - those people being served. Sacraments are a central focus in our theology and in our lives. If Pastor Lose is right, serving needs to be as central a part of who we are as a congregation as Baptism and Communion.

St. Philip's is in the process of transition and change. The Worship Life Task Force is working on worship as a central focus in our lives. The Transition Task Force is working toward calling a new Senior Pastor. The Board of Administration will be looking at our governance and organization. All of these will be looking toward the future. Part of that future must involve dedicating ourselves to service as a sacrament and bringing that sacrament to as many in our community and world who need it.

As always, we do what we do …in Jesus' name.

~Mike

How Do You Spell "Weir?" Property & Grounds Committee

This has been a running joke with the members of the Property & Grounds Committee. It all started several years back when Myron Nash stated during a meeting that our weir had rotted away and it has not been replaced. No one knew what he was talking about and finally someone said "How do you spell weir?"

Myron started explaining: When the main parking lot was built, it was constructed such that water would run off it toward the southwest corner. It would then go into a small holding pond and eventually into Moore Lake. A wood barrier, called a weir, was placed on the lake end preventing water from entering the lake until the level in the pond was higher than the weir, allowing more sediment to settle out of the water before flowing into the lake. Myron said that the weir is since rotted away and we should be sure that we are not damaging the quality of the lake water.

As a result of this conversation, we contacted Mitch Hausted from the Anoka Conservation District who, after taking water samples and doing a lot of measuring, determined that the quality of the water flowing from the parking lot and into the lake is of sufficient quality to not be causing any damage. However, he recommended that the church install a pre-treatment chamber between the parking lot and the holding pond. This chamber would clean sediment from the runoff prior to it entering the pond, improving the quality of the runoff in a manner similar to the old weir and would prevent the pond from filling up with sediment. The total cost of this project would be $3,986. Fortunately, grants are available to help pay for such projects and St. Philip's has applied for a 75% cost sharing grant from the Rice Creek Watershed District. Hopefully, by the time you are reading this, we will have been approved for the grant and the project has been completed!

We are fortunate that we have such a beautiful location for our church, next to Moore Lake. It is our responsibility to take care of the lake and this project is one way in which we are doing that. And now we all know what a weir is and how to spell it!

LCCN Women's Fellowship - Third Installment

This is the fourth and final installment of the letter to St. Philip's from Mr. Clement B. Dah, St. Philip's companion congregation LCCN Bille.

The women of LCCN Bille are the most active members of the congregation. Gender integration has put them high in church activities in addition to their commitment to their families' care. They program activities throughout the days of the week and strictly follow such activities despite other commitments in their homes.

LCCN Bille Women's activities are as follows:

1. Yearly registration of members. They collect fees of N300.00k which are sent to the Diocese for evangelical work.
2. Weekly Bible studies and prayer sessions
3. Weekly learning of home economics
4. Weekly learning of new praise/worship songs
5. Weekly learning of hand work; e.g., calabash carving, etc.
6. Weekly talk on home training of children and health care
7. Cleaning of the church premises, both interior and outside
8. Paying condolence visit to any bereaved family
9. Visiting sick members and presenting a token gift (cash or kind)
10. Mummy and Daughter Programme. This program was initiated two years ago by the women's groups. The women exchange gifts, material and cash with each other, mother to daughter and daughter to mother, not necessarily biological relatives. Gifts are given in response to or in return to earlier ones given. All monies realized are shared among the Headquarters, Diocese and Mother church. Last year, N143,665 (Nigerian money) was collected and shared among these entities.

God's blessings,

Clement B. Dah - For LCCN

Summer Preaching Series Interim Senior Pastor Christine Wenzel

This summer, as we worship lakeside, we are beginning a new preaching series Wednesday evenings based on the book, The Gifts of Imperfection by Brene' Brown. We will look at ten "guideposts" for wholehearted living.

Several opportunities will be available following the service. Connie Yerigan will lead the children in activities. Sara Quarberg will meet with the youth for "S'more Conversations." And, the pastors will gather with those who want to stay for a "Discussion on the Deck."

5/31 "Wholehearted Living"

6/7 "Courage, Compassion, and Connection

6/14 "Exploring the Power of Love, Belonging, and Being Enough"

6/21 Cultivating Authenticity

6/28 Cultivating Self-Compassion

7/5 Cultivating a Resilient Spirit

7/12 Cultivating Gratitude and Joy

7/19 Cultivating Intuition and Faith

7/26 Cultivating Creativity

8/2 Cultivating Play and Rest

8/9 Cultivating Calm and Stillness

8/16 Cultivating Meaningful Work

8/23 Cultivating Laughter, Song, and Dance

The Psalms will guide us this summer in our sermon time. The very first word of the book of Psalms is "Happy." It is clear from the beginning and throughout the Psalms that the definition of human happiness is thoroughly God-centered. Happiness derives from our complete orientation of life with God. The Psalms reveals the life God intends for humankind and for the world.

Jesus commands us to love the Lord your God with all your heart, your soul, and your mind, and to love your neighbor as yourself. Brene' Brown writes, "We are biologically, cognitively, physically, and spiritually wired to love, to be loved, and to belong.... We can only love others as much as we love ourselves.... Belonging is the innate human desire to be part of something larger than us.... True belonging only happens when we present our authentic, imperfect selves to the world."

We hope this series is an opportunity to restore and rejuvenate your relationship with God, with your family, friends, and neighbors, but also with yourself. My prayer is that we remember that we are all precious and honored in God's sight, and loved, profoundly loved, not because of what we produce, but because we are children of God.

Columbarium Niche Owners Meeting

There will be a short meeting for all Columbarium niche owners and anyone considering purchasing a niche on Sunday, June 4 at 7:00 pm in the Lounge. Please add June 4 to your calendar and join us that evening.

Pilgrimage to Israel and Jordan

You are invited to join Pastor Margie October 24 through November 4, 2017, on a pilgrimage to Israel and Jordan. This is an experience of a lifetime to see the Bible come to life. We will visit this ancient land where Jesus was born, lived, and died for us. Pastor Margie has led many groups to the Holy Land and would love to share it all with you. There is a brochure on the community bulletin board and in the church office. If you are interested please contact Pastor Margie [MargieG@splcmn.org or 763-862-1130]. An informational gathering will be held at Lord of Life Church, 14501 Nowthen Boulevard in Ramsey, on Monday, June 12 at 6:30 pm.
